- To commemorate and acknowledge the educational and intellectual legacy of Dr. Rafiq Zakaria.
- To strengthen academic and literary collaboration between the institution and the Maharashtra State Urdu Sahitya Academy.

❖ Report of the Activity

The Department of Urdu, Dr. Rafiq Zakaria College for Women, Chhatrapati Sambhaji Nagar, in collaboration with the Maharashtra State Urdu Sahitya Academy, Mumbai, organized a One-Day National Seminar on “Urdu Criticism: Tradition and Contemporary Scenario” on 09 July 2026.

The seminar was organized in memory of Dr. Rafiq Zakaria and was conceived as a scholarly tribute to his remarkable contribution to education, social development, national integration and the promotion of learning.

The programme also aimed to provide a meaningful academic platform for discussing the historical development and contemporary relevance of Urdu criticism.

The seminar brought together scholars, teachers, researchers, students and literary enthusiasts in an intellectually stimulating environment. The event was conducted at Dr. Fatima Rafiq Zakaria Hall, where the presence of distinguished scholars and participants created an atmosphere of academic seriousness and literary engagement.

One of the distinctive features of the seminar was the active participation of women scholars and researchers. A significant number of research papers were presented by women researchers, and several academic and organizational responsibilities were also undertaken by women faculty members and scholars. This reflected the growing contribution and participation of women in Urdu literary research and academic discourse.

❖ Inaugural Session

The inaugural session was conducted under the chairmanship of Dr. Makhdoom Farooqui, Principal. The proceedings of the inaugural session were conducted by Farheen Shamim Khan.

The session included distinguished guests and scholars, including renowned fiction writer Dr. Sadiqa Nawab Sahar and Mr. Hussain Akhtar, Chairman, Maharashtra State Urdu Sahitya Academy, Mumbai, as special guests.

During his address, Mr. Hussain Akhtar paid tribute to Dr. Rafiq Zakaria and highlighted his contribution to education and social development. He emphasized the importance of educational institutions in creating opportunities for the advancement of society, particularly for women and underrepresented sections.

He also highlighted the activities of the Maharashtra State Urdu Sahitya Academy in promoting Urdu language and literature throughout the state. He referred to the Academy's initiatives relating to literary programmes, seminars, conferences, research activities and encouragement of young writers and researchers.

The inaugural session also included a deeply emotional moment when condolences were expressed on the sad demise of an M.A. Second Year student of the college. The college administration, teachers, guests and participants observed the solemn occasion and prayed for the departed soul. A letter of appreciation and remembrance was presented to the bereaved family on behalf of the college by Dr. Makhdoom Farooqui, Principal. This moment reflected the institution's commitment not only to academic excellence but also to human values, compassion and social responsibility.

❖ Presidential Address

In his presidential address, Dr. Makhdoom Farooqui, Principal, emphasized the educational, social and intellectual significance of Dr. Rafiq Zakaria's legacy. He highlighted Dr. Rafiq Zakaria's role as an educationist, thinker, scholar and advocate of education and national integration. He emphasized that the establishment of educational institutions in the Marathwada region created valuable opportunities for young people, particularly women, to pursue higher education. He observed that the present institution represents an important part of the educational vision associated with Dr. Rafiq Zakaria and that organizing academic seminars on Urdu literature and criticism is a meaningful way of continuing and strengthening that intellectual tradition.

❖ Keynote Address

The keynote address was delivered by Dr. Tahseen Saleem Shahzad. In his scholarly address, Dr. Tahseen Saleem Shahzad presented a comprehensive overview of the development of Urdu criticism, beginning with its classical tradition and extending to modern, postmodern and interdisciplinary approaches. The keynote address highlighted the changing nature of critical thought and demonstrated how Urdu criticism has continually responded to new intellectual, social and literary developments. The address provided an important theoretical foundation for the subsequent academic sessions.

❖ Academic Session – I

The first academic session was chaired by Dr. Mumtaz Jahan Siddiqui, former Head, Department of Urdu, Gaya Nawab's College, Parbhani, while the session was conducted by Dr. Shaikh Shagufta Shireen.

The following research papers were presented:

ACTION TAKEN REPORT (ATR)

Name of the Activity:-Urdu Handwriting Competition

Date:- 21 September 2026

➤ Aim of the Activity

The main aim of organizing the Urdu Handwriting Competition was to encourage students to develop neat, legible, graceful and attractive Urdu handwriting. The activity was designed to strengthen students' interest in the Urdu language and script and to make them aware of the aesthetic and cultural significance of Urdu handwriting.

The competition also aimed to provide students with a platform to express their creativity and demonstrate their writing skills in a healthy and encouraging academic environment. It was intended to revive interest in the traditional art of beautiful handwriting and to motivate students to maintain accuracy, discipline and presentation in their written work.

➤ Objectives of the Activity

The major objectives of the Urdu Handwriting Competition were :

- ❖ To develop and improve students' Urdu handwriting skills.
- ❖ To encourage students to write Urdu in a neat, clear and attractive manner.
- ❖ To create interest and appreciation for the Urdu language and its beautiful script.
- ❖ To provide students with an opportunity to display their literary and creative abilities.
- ❖ To promote the habit of careful, accurate and disciplined writing among students.
- ❖ To familiarize students with the aesthetic value of Urdu handwriting.

- ❖ To encourage students to preserve and appreciate the traditional art of Urdu calligraphy and handwriting.
- ❖ To provide a healthy platform for students to participate in co-curricular activities.
- ❖ To enhance students' confidence by giving them an opportunity to showcase their individual talents.
- ❖ To create an interactive and positive learning environment within the Department of Urdu.

➤ Report of the Activity

The Department of Urdu, Dr. Rafiq Zakaria College for Women, Chhatrapati Sambhaji Nagar, organized an Urdu Handwriting Competition on 21 September 2026 as an academic and co-curricular activity for the students.

The competition was organized with the purpose of encouraging students to take an active interest in Urdu handwriting and to appreciate the beauty, elegance and cultural importance of the Urdu script. The activity provided students with an opportunity to demonstrate their ability to write Urdu in a neat, clear and aesthetically pleasing manner.

Prior to the competition, students were informed about the activity and encouraged to participate. Necessary arrangements were made by the Department of Urdu for the smooth and systematic conduct of the competition. Students participated with enthusiasm and showed considerable interest in presenting their handwriting in an attractive and disciplined manner.

During the competition, students carefully prepared their entries and displayed their individual handwriting styles. They paid attention to the formation of letters, spacing, alignment, clarity, neatness and overall presentation. The activity created an atmosphere of healthy competition and encouraged students to perform to the best of their abilities.

The entries were evaluated on the basis of appropriate criteria such as neatness, legibility, accuracy, proper formation of Urdu letters, spacing, alignment, presentation and overall aesthetic quality. The students were encouraged and appreciated for their sincere participation and efforts.

The competition proved to be an effective platform for identifying and encouraging students who possess an interest and talent in Urdu handwriting. It also helped students understand that good handwriting is not merely a matter of appearance but also reflects concentration, patience, discipline and attention to detail.

The activity received an encouraging response from the students. Their enthusiastic participation demonstrated their interest in Urdu language and script. The competition also contributed towards creating awareness about the importance of preserving the beauty of Urdu writing in the present digital age.

➤ Action Taken

The Department of Urdu took the following steps for the successful implementation of the activity:

- The Urdu Handwriting Competition was planned and organized by the Department of Urdu.
- Students were informed and motivated to participate in the competition.
- Necessary arrangements and guidelines were provided to the participants.
- Students were given an appropriate opportunity to demonstrate their Urdu handwriting skills.
- The participants' entries were evaluated systematically on the basis of predefined criteria.
- Attention was given to neatness, clarity, accuracy, letter formation, spacing, alignment and overall presentation.
- Students were encouraged to participate without hesitation and to demonstrate their individual abilities.
- Outstanding efforts and good performances were acknowledged and appreciated.
- The activity was documented for departmental and institutional records.
- The competition was successfully completed in a disciplined and positive academic environment.

➤ Outcome of the Activity

The Urdu Handwriting Competition produced positive academic and co-curricular outcomes. The activity helped students improve their awareness of neat and legible Urdu handwriting and encouraged them to pay greater attention to the proper formation of Urdu letters and words. The competition also helped students develop qualities such as patience, concentration, creativity, accuracy and confidence. By participating in the activity, students received an opportunity to present their individual talents and learn from the work of their peers.

The activity further strengthened students' interest in the Urdu language and script and helped them appreciate the artistic and cultural dimensions of Urdu handwriting. It also contributed towards preserving the practice of beautiful Urdu writing among students.

Overall, the activity successfully fulfilled its intended objectives and provided students with a meaningful, engaging and educational experience.

➤ Conclusion

The Urdu Handwriting Competition organized by the Department of Urdu on 21 September 2026 was successfully conducted and received an encouraging response from the students. The activity provided a valuable platform for students to demonstrate their handwriting skills, creativity and interest in the Urdu language.

The competition not only promoted neat and beautiful handwriting but also encouraged students to appreciate the richness, elegance and cultural heritage associated with the Urdu script. Such activities play an important role in developing students' confidence, creativity and overall personality. The Department of Urdu intends to continue organizing similar academic and co-curricular activities in the future to encourage students' linguistic abilities, creativity and appreciation of Urdu language and literature.

❖ Report of the Activity

The Department of Urdu, Dr. Rafiq Zakaria College for Women, Chhatrapati Sambhaji Nagar, organized an Urdu Essay Writing Competition on 22 September 2026 as part of its academic and literary activities.

The competition was organized with the objective of encouraging students to develop their writing abilities and to provide them with an opportunity to express their thoughts, ideas, knowledge and creativity through the Urdu language. The activity also aimed to create a stimulating literary environment within the institution and to encourage students to take an active interest in Urdu language and literature. Students participated enthusiastically in the competition and demonstrated considerable interest in the activity. The participants expressed their ideas and opinions through well-structured Urdu essays. The competition provided them with an opportunity to make effective use of their vocabulary, imagination, knowledge and creative abilities.

The activity encouraged students to think independently and organize their ideas in a systematic manner. While writing their essays, students focused on the subject matter, language, coherence, originality and overall presentation of their work. The competition thus served as a useful exercise in developing both creative and critical thinking skills.

The essays submitted by the participants were evaluated by Ms. Shaikh Jabeen and Ms. Syeda Sara Tabassum, Model D.Ed. College, who served as the judges for the competition. The entries were assessed carefully on the basis of content, relevance, originality, creativity, language, vocabulary, organization of ideas, presentation and overall quality of writing.

The programme was conducted under the guidance and support of Prof. Vidya Pradhan, In-charge Principal. The faculty members of the Department of Urdu—Dr. Husaini Kausar Sultana, Dr. Shaikh Kaneez Fatima, Ms. Asma Jabeen, Dr. Noor-ul-Ain, and Dr. Shagufta Yasmin—played an important role in planning, organizing, coordinating and successfully conducting the competition. The faculty members encouraged the students to participate actively and provided the necessary academic guidance for the smooth conduct of the activity. The competition was conducted in a disciplined, systematic and encouraging academic environment. The activity provided students with a valuable opportunity to explore their creativity and literary abilities. It also helped them understand the importance of effective written communication and encouraged them to use Urdu as a medium for expressing their ideas and perspectives.
